Benefit from a faster, simpler way to hire

Simplicity – No need to manage countless individual talent acquisition technology integrations with Infor. Centralize complex talent acquisition data in iCIMS and seamlessly transfer that as one unified story to Infor.

Return On Investment – Eliminate costly errors and improve employee productivity with automated data transfer between systems. Experience soft savings from robust support including integration validation and ongoing monitoring.

Data Governance – Support accurate decision-making and provide a safeguard for compliance with a single set of data. iCIMS offers real-time, bidirectional data transfer capabilities with Infor.

Scalability – Work with different talent acquisition point solutions as your business scales, without needing to implement and maintain multiple connections with Infor. Your one connection to iCIMS provides it all.

Flexibility – Add or update other talent acquisition technology integrations through iCIMS, without impacting the performance of your integration to Infor
